

Requiring prior written approval for member solicitation by fax is ridiculous. Association Members expect you to contact them without all of this red tape. This is another casse of too much government and not enough common sense.